More than just a day on the greens, the annual SGBC Golf Tournament is a strategic gathering of local business leaders, entrepreneurs, and community advocates. Participants will enjoy a day of friendly competition, networking opportunities, and a chance to contribute directly to the economic empowerment of Southern Georgia.

Join us for a memorable day where every shot helps build a stronger, more vibrant Southern Georgia. Your partnership makes a tangible difference!

This tournament brings together diverse professionals for a day of camaraderie and collaboration.

Being a supporter offers sponsors a prominent platform to support SGBC's mission to provide small business development grants and scholarships.

About SGBC

The Southern Georgia Black Chambers (SGBC) stands as the leading voice and advocate for Black-owned businesses and entrepreneurs across our region. Our mission is clear: to empower, connect, and elevate our members, fostering an inclusive economic ecosystem where every business has the opportunity to thrive.

We actively work to increase access to capital, contracts, and opportunities for small businesses, contributing directly to job creation and local prosperity.

@sgablackchambers

Founded on the principles of community, collaboration, and economic justice, SGBC provides essential resources, strategic partnerships, and unparalleled advocacy. We are more than just a membership organization; we are a catalyst for growth, dedicated to breaking down barriers and building bridges to success.

Through tailored programs, workshops, and our groundbreaking AI2M Initiative (featuring the AI-powered Small Business Compass Report), we provide members with predictive insights and actionable strategies to optimize their growth and navigate complex markets.

We create dynamic platforms for members to connect, share knowledge, and forge powerful partnerships that drive collective success.
